

The WINDOW

November 24, 2025

Intentional Worship

Intentional Relationships

Intentional Service

I have been trying to put into words how amazing Sunday night's Hanging of the Greens was. I know some of you were skeptical about my not saying what time we were eating and just telling you to be there at 4, but what a fantastic time of fellowship and eating it was, and the building looks amazing. Just to put into perspective the attendance last night, we had our oldest member and our youngest, our longest serving members and our newest and it was 3 hours of pure joy and fellowship. It was without a doubt, an amazing way to kick off advent and hopefully the beginning of an annual tradition which will continue to be a source of joy for years to come. I want to thank Brian Linthicum for cooking the meal and Vicki for doing her best to coordinate the decorating.

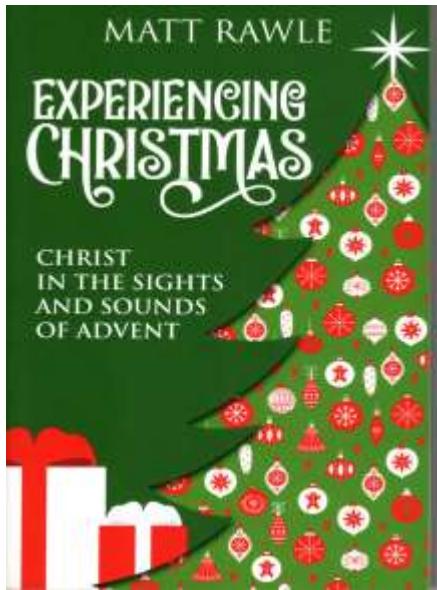

With the church calendar beginning this week, we will have many opportunities for worship, fellowship, and service over the next few weeks. It is my personal goal to ensure that each person who walks through this door, regardless of what is going on in your family, or how the year finds you, that while you are here you feel seen and loved. It is Morgan's and my sincere hope that you all have a Happy Thanksgiving and know that we love you all!

Have a Fantastic Week!
